What is happening All About Us
Division of Library Services

February 1980

PHYLLIS POTTER has taken over duties as Library Assistant in the Education Area, Cravens 5th floor. The Catalog Information Desk will be staffed by students under the supervision of LUCY DANIELS.

LEON VINCENT has been given responsibility for supervision of the Patrollers and for closing in evenings and on weekends. If you need to get in touch with a patroller during these times, call Leon at ext. 54.

THE NEW YORKER MAGAZINE (Jan. 28, 1980) included an article on local cinematographic celebrity John Carpenter.

The members of the Library Services Faculty Committee include LINDA ALLAN, Technical Services; BECKY MOORE, Circulation; SANDRA ANDERSON, Reference; and PATTY MACLEISH, Special Collections. We all hope the Committee can become a positive and constructive element in the planning and implementation of the activities of Library Services. If anyone has concerns or suggestions, please pass them along to your representative.

SALLY ANN KOENIG received an EdS degree in December. Congratulations!

Three Cambodian Refugees have been making extensive use of Media Retrieval to aid their mastery of English.

EVELYN THURMAN has been granted a Sabbatical by the Board of Regents for continuing her work on a biography of Rebecca Caudill. This is the first Sabbatical granted to a faculty member in Academic Services in quite some time; this is an achievement not only for Evelyn, but for all Academic Services faculty.

REMINDER: It is again time to try to make our patrons more aware of their personal belongings and to not leave purses, wallets, calculators or other valuables unattended for any length of time.

Ellis Hartford, a principal donor to the Kentucky Library, died recently in Louisville. Dr. Hartford was for many years professor of education at the University of Kentucky.

EVELYN THURMAN's article "Creativity in the Classroom" has appeared in the recent issue of Issues in Education.

The Kentucky General Assembly is considering a House Bill pertaining to gifts and donations to museums. Kentucky Museum Curator BRUCE MACLEISH has responded to the proposed legislation and others are expected to do the same.

The library has begun to receive the Administration on Aging's SCAN microfiche collection. Currently no index is available; if you need further information on the collection or wish to use it, please contact BOYD CHILDRESS or MEG EISEMANN.

PERSONAL NOTES - We all want to wish Dr. Rees a speedy recovery, our deepest sympathy to Blanche Parrent in the loss of her brother and Lucy Daniels would like to thank everyone for their kindness during her recent troubles.

NELDA WYATT, Library Assistant on Cravens 7th floor has transferred to the position of Research Assistant in the Kentucky Museum.

On January 23-26, SALLY ANN KOENIG visited Winthrop College in Rockhill, South Carolina as a member of Western's Faculty Exchange Program. This is the first year that library faculty members from all three schools have been included. For more information on the program, contact Sally Ann.

MANAGEMENT SEMINAR RESULTS

CONNIE FOSTER attended a four day Library Management Skills Institute in Maryland last Fall and held in-house Seminars for library faculty and staff in January. She reports:

Robert Burns once expressed the desire that we see ourselves as others see us. As a result of the management seminar I recently held, I find it appropriate to reverse Burns' reflection, to consider others seeing us as we ourselves do. In separate sessions the faculty and staff ranked the five most valued characteristics in a job from a list of twelve. The results supplied the following revealing priorities:

Faculty

Support Staff

1. Salary; Utilization of Knowledge and Skills.
2. Utilization of Knowledge and Skills
3. Challenging Work; Good Working Conditions.
4. Good Working Conditions.
5. Salary.

- 1 & 2. Utilization of Knowledge and Skills; Challenging Work; Good Working Conditions.
3. Position with Responsibility.
4. Opportunity for Advancement; Job Security.
5. Opportunity for Advancement; Personal Growth.

Connie would like to thank all those who attended the seminars for their participation.

EDITORIAL COMMENT: We would like to commend the OCR Task Force on the organized and professional manner of conducting the labeling project during registration.

EXHIBITIONISM

The display of minatures by REG LASWELL, which recently appeared in the Reference Area, was a big hit. It's our understanding that a repeat performance is being held at BGPL.

Also at the BGPL is an exhibition of the work of JIM SACREY.

The Fifth Floor Gallery has a fine exhibition of the work of JANE GLASSER. Please be sure to stop by to see it.

The Editors of LSN have volunteered to try to improve the circulation of professional literature. If anyone gets a professional journal and would be willing to circulate it to their colleagues when through, please contact BOB TUREK in Cravens or A.T. STEVENS in the Kentucky Museum. In Helm-Cravens we are especially interested in copies of LJ, Amer. LIB., LRTS, RQ, Library Coll. and Res. Lib. If you have suggestions, please pass them along.

FLOOR LIBRARIANS - It is recommended that new books presently on display (System 94) be returned to the floors for circulation on March 4.

VICKY MIDDLESWARTH-KOHN has joined the Kentucky Museum staff as an Education Assistant.

DR. REES is at home now, and is recuperating nicely following major surgery.

EVELYN THURMAN spoke to the first-graders at McNeil school recently about Japan. On February 22, she will visit with the International Club in Scottsville for a taster's meeting, and on the 26th of this month, she will be speaking to the gifted students at Jones-Jaggers about creative writing.

The BOWLING TEAM, which includes CONNIE FOSTER, NELDA SIMS, DEBBY SMITH and former employee JANE BROOKS will participate in the Bowling Green Women's Association Bowling Tournament at the Crescent Bowl on March 1.

RON SKILLERN has announced that the following materials have been moved from Government Documents to the Law Library: Federal Register, Code of Federal Regulations, Statutes at Large, Court of Claims Reports, Court of Customs and Patent Appeals, and United States Customs Court Reports.

BRUCE and PATTY MACLEISH will be leaving their positions with the Kentucky Museum in April. Bruce will at that time take on the role of Curator with the New York State Historical Association in Cooperstown. The Editors want to extend them their sincere best wishes; the MacLeishs will be sorely missed.

NANCY BAIRD spoke to the Green River Librarians' Association on February 11 on Luke Blackburn, her most recent publication. The group met at Kentucky Wesleyan College in Owensboro.

The FOLKLORE, FOLKLIFE, ORAL HISTORY ARCHIVES recently acquired the Archbold collection. This collection, which was gathered by Ann Archbold, consists of a survey with interviews of traditional crafts and folklife in Warren County. The project was funded jointly by a grant and the Bowling Green-Warren County Arts Commission. One of the outstanding performers in this collection is our own LUCY DANIELS.

The staff of AAU wishes to thank all those who have volunteered to share their personal copies of professional journals in the faculty development reading program.

Also, a big THANK YOU to the LIBRARY SERVICES FACULTY SALARY STUDY COMMITTEE for a job well done. We appreciate the many hours you spent gathering data and presenting recommendations in our behalf.

HAPPY LEAP DAY, February 29, 1980!

GROWLS OF GRATITUDE

Patience and Fortitude, the two marble lions who flank the Fifth Avenue entrance of the New York Public Library, have taken up roaring at noontime. The tape-recorded roars are meant as greetings to New Yorkers, thanking them for contributions to the library and reminding them that, in the words of one curator, it is all right "to feed the lions."

The lions have been linked with the library, on letterheads, cards and in the public mind, ever since the sculpting by Edward C. Potter in 1911. Not all observers have been equally taken with them, however, and at least one critic has complained that beavers would offer a more appropriate association with a library. To which the reply of legend: Beavers would not permit booklovers to read between the lions.

Listed below are the conditions under which the library will operate during EXTENDED HOURS.

1. EFFECTIVE DATE: Extended hours will begin March 28, 1980. This is the Friday following Spring Break.
2. PLACE: Helm Library, second floor and the concession area on Helm Ground floor which is directly below the Helm Foyer.
3. DAYS AND HOURS: Friday and Saturday evenings until 10 p.m.
4. COPY SERVICES: Coin-operated copy machines on Helm, second floor will be available. (Students must bring their own change as cash will not be available).
5. REFERENCE AND CIRCULATION: No reference services will be provided nor will materials be available for check-out as these areas will be closed. Two checkers and one patroller will be scheduled during these extended hours.
6. STUDENTS AND FACULTY will be admitted only upon presentation of their valid ID cards.
7. PURPOSES: To provide students and faculty with limited access to the library periodicals collection, to provide an area conducive to study and to make copy machines available.

The Department of Special Collections has elected NANCY BAIRD to replace Patty MacLeish on the Library Services Faculty Committee.

C. H. Fenichel will offer an introductory workshop for On Line Literature Searching at UK April 18, 1980. Enrollment is limited; fee is $35. Contact: Office of Continuing Education, College of Library Science, 465 Patterson Office Tower 00270, University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY, 40506

----- ATTENTION! -----

Are you beginning to cringe at thoughts of the upcoming sun-and-swimming season? Are you carrying fewer books and feeling it more? A diet-together group is being formed in Library Services. Bring a slender lunch to the student lounge on the 2nd floor of Cravens, noon on Thursday, March 13. Local experts on running, dieting, and nutrition will be on hand. For information, call extension 50. (This activity has been approved by the Library Beautification Committee.)

HAPPY SPRING BREAK!

NANCY SOLLEY has been appointed to a presidential advisory committee of students and faculty being set up in the next few weeks.

Shelley Brown, daughter of ANN BROWN, played Baby June in the recent production of "Gypsy."

Jim Tomes, Director of Personnel Services, and Mike Dale, Staff Assistant, met with Library Services support staff to answer questions and hear concerns about the classification system on Wednesday, February 27. For information on the meeting, please get in touch with BLANCHE PARRENT, ext. 32.

Library Applications of Data Processing, the 17th annual clinic, will be held April 20-23 at University of Illinois. Registration is $115. For information contact: University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, Accounting Business Office, Room 247, Administration Building, Urbana, Illinois, 61801.

PAT BOWEN has been appointed to the Committee for the Inauguration of our new President.

A.T. Stephens will be in Washington, D.C. the week of March 9 attending a workshop on "Museum-School Relations" conducted by the Smithsonian Institution.

PEGGY WRIGHT attended a workshop on cataloging and classification conducted by M. Kimbrough in Huntsville, Alabama, during February.

We all wish WILMA ADCOCK a speedy recovery.

Professors Evan Rudolph and Barbara Johnson, members of the Employee Communications Advisory Committee, met with ten of the support staff in Library Services on March 10. These staff members were randomly selected by Personnel Services. This was one of many sessions being held campus-wide. A follow-up meeting was discussed to take place after Spring Break.

Our thoughts to STELLA CRITTENDEN, Kentucky Museum, and BOYD CHILDRESS during their surgery. Stella is in Vanderbilt Hospital and Boyd is at Greenview.

CRAVENS GRADUATE CENTER will be closed from May to December for further location shifts in stacks and files. These changes should go unnoticed by nearly everyone once Cravens reopens, and should not be confused with changes among the Library's rank and file, who are distinguishable by their "What, Me Worry?" T-shirts.

AND beginning next Friday, the stairs at the south end of CRAVENS will only go between floors one and four. North end stairs will be restricted to floors four through nine.

NEWS BRIEFS:

The Library of Congress has postponed issuing cataloging regulations for the time being. A conference committee has been set up to discuss the likelihood of going directly to AACR III, without going to jail, and still collecting $200.

The former Shah of Iran has been granted political asylum in GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS. Pictures at 10:00.

BRUCE and PATTY MACLEISH will be staying indefinitely in Bowling Green after being feted to a farewell pot-luck by their colleagues in THE KENTUCKY BUILDING. Choosing a dessert from the glut of thirty-seven cakes and goodies was too much for the departing MacLeishs. They will be sampling the pies of their peers in the "Believe It or Not" exhibit at least until October.

MONEY, MONEY, MONEY. The State Legislature has reached a compromise in providing salary increases for employees of State-supported universities in the range of 35%. Additional funds will come from the sale of Ohio's half of the Ohio River.

MONEY, MONEY. Immediately or soon thereafter, all books will be checked out overdue. Fines generated by this new procedure are earmarked for an on-site inspection project of library services in St. Thomas, the Virgin Islands, by the CIRCULATION Department next February. REFERENCE will begin a similar fund-raising project by charging a 25¢ fee for directional questions and 50¢ for each bibliographic or informational request.

MONEY. The Fifth Annual Library Student Assistants Rodeo is scheduled for April 28, 29 and 30. Contestants should sign up early for any of these events: Searching, Reshelving, The Wild Truck Ride, Mansell Wrestling, and Overdue Roping. A prize of 14 interrupted seconds of free xeroxing will be given to the assistant accumulating the most points.

NEW APPROVAL PLAN POLICY. All books being reviewed on the Approval Plan must first be approved by the university censor. Please do not check "KEEP" for any book which does not have prior approval. A list of forbidden books will not be circulated or posted under any conditions, in accordance with Act of Privacy restrictions.

In a more serious vein....

MARILYN PRUDEN will be leaving the Mailroom on April 4.

DIANE VOYLES will begin work on April 1 as the new assistant in GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS.

BOYD CHILDRESS, STELLA CRITTENDEN and DR. ROBERT REES are all recovering nicely.

From a recent CIS HIGHLIGHTS...Alcohol Fuel Options and Federal Policies, from the House Science and Technology Committee Hearings (H701-70.) GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS can supply additional information.

The SPRING ACADEMIC KLA program is out. For further information, contact EILEEN COHEN.

RICK VOYLES has been employed to fill in for Boyd Childress during his sick leave and later on while Boyd is working on his research grant.

SALLY ANN KOENIG visited Shippensburg State College with the Faculty Exchange Program last week. For details, call ext. 50.

The BOWLING TEAM competed in the Women's City Handicap Tournament March 15 and 16. They placed 15th out of approximately 50 entrants in the Team Event and Sue Gregory (the non-Westerner) placed 1st and DEBBY SMITH placed 4th out of approximately 70 entrants in the Singles Event. Congratulations! also to other members - NELDA SIMS, CONNIE FOSTER and former-Westerner Jane Brooks.

According to information received by the editorial staff, two members of the Academic Services faculty have been nominated for Distinguished Contribution to the University Awards for the 1979-80 school year. Evelyn Thurman is a nominee for the Public Service Award and Jim Sanders is vying for the Teaching Award.

You are invited to see the display of glassware which is currently on exhibit in the inner Helm Lobby. From a private collection, this outstanding display will continue for your enjoyment through May 9.

Library Services Department Heads and selected faculty have recently completed a Management Seminar which was conducted by various WKU faculty-staff members.

AAU Editors, thanks for the card. I loved it!, Debby.

The Library Services faculty met with the Library Services Faculty Committee on April 16. The Committee reported to the group on attempted organization of the various study groups. They also encourage faculty members to bring concerns to them at any time.

Several members of the Library Services faculty attended the Spring meeting of the Academic Library Section of KLA at Pleasant Hill on April 24 and 25. Eileen Cohen was on the planning committee for this conference.

There will be a joint meeting of the Special Libraries Section of KLA and the Special Libraries Association, Kentucky Chapter, at Barren River Lake State Park on Thursday and Friday, May 1-2. Everyone is encouraged to attend this interesting and informative meeting. See attached schedule of events. For more information, contact Virginia Neel.

Ohio Valley Group of Technical Services Librarians will be meeting at the Hyatt Regency in Lexington on Friday and Saturday, May 9-10. Several members of the faculty have already planned to attend this outstanding meeting. See attached schedule of events. Further inquiries may be directed to Reg Laswell.

Most of the Cataloging faculty will be attending an AACR 2 workshop at the University of Kentucky on May 29-30. Group participation in this continuing education workshop was made possible through a faculty development grant.

The Administrative Council of the Kentucky Council of Archivists will be visiting in the Kentucky Library on May 1 to plan the Association's joint meeting with the Tennessee archivists scheduled for October. Pat Hodges and Penny Harrison are hosting the planning session. Details of this meeting to be held on Western's campus will be released later.

The long-awaited Library Advisory Committee held its organizational meeting with Dr. James Davis in the Regents Room of Wetherby Administration Building on Wednesday, April 23. It is hoped that this Committee will be successful in providing a necessary communication link between libraries and the academic community. Library Services members of this Committee for the 1980-81 academic year are Earl Wassom, Chair, Peggy Wright, Sara Scott, Reg Laswell, Pat Hodges, and Jean Almand.

Professional literature - more thanks to the newest donators of journals for circulating through library faculty and staff. Copies of articles which have made the rounds will be kept on file on the 8th floor, if anyone wants to refer to them. Please pass along any suggestions or criticisms to 8th floor.

Paul Riley talked with foreign students and answered their questions about learning a foreign language.

LIBRARY POSITION AVAILABLE - Manager, Information Services. Special Libraries Association has an opening for Manager of its Information Services Department. This is a one-person operation with clerical assistance as required. The Manager is responsible for the acquisition, organization, use, and maintenance of information resources for the SLA library, a collection of 2,213 titles (including 143 periodical titles), and the Association's archives. SLA Information Services are used by SLA members, the SLA staff, and the public. Reference and referral services to members, in particular, are an important and growing function of the Department. Applicants should have an MLS and a demonstrated interest in special librarianship; familiarity with on-line database searching is desirable. Applications from recent graduates are encouraged. New salary range under consideration. Current salary range: $12,840-$19,320. Hiring range: $12,840-$14,880, depending on qualifications and experience. Closing date: May 30, 1980. Send letters of application and résumés to Richard Griffin, Asst. Executive Director, Special Libraries Association, 235 Park Avenue South, New York, NY 10003. Interviews can be arranged at the SLA Conference in Washington, D.C., June 8-11. SLA is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

This issue's cartoon was submitted by Phyllis Potter, Cravens Education floor.

THE KENTUCKY LIBRARY AND MUSEUM will officially reopen its doors at 10:00 a.m. on Friday, July 4, 1980. A weekend of special performances, children's activities and guided tours of the building and exhibits will follow, celebrating the completion of extensive expansion and renovations. The Kentucky Building will be open thereafter Tuesdays through Saturdays 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and on Sundays from 1:00 until 4:00 p.m. Admission is free.

CONGRATULATIONS are due to PEGGY WRIGHT - She received her diploma from Peabody last week.

NEW MEMBER of the Library Services family - PAM and DAVID PAYNE have a lovely baby girl named ELIZABETH COUNTESS PAYNE.

ELECTIONS -

* PAT BOWEN was elected Vice-chair of the Faculty Senate; CONNIE FOSTER was elected Secretary-Treasurer. It is indicative of the regard in which our faculty are held that two of the four offices of the new Senate will be held by Academic Services faculty.

* BOB TUREK and DIANE RUTLEDGE were elected as representatives to Academic Council; PAT HODGES, NANCY BAIRD and DR. WASSOM as alternates.

VOLUME 607 of MANSELL is missing from the third floor. Whoever has borrowed it, please return it as soon as possible.

CONGRATULATIONS are due to PAT HODGES, SALLY ANN KOENIG, REG LASWELL, SHIU-YUE MAK, BOYD CHILDRESS, IRA KOHN and PAUL RILEY - all of whom were promoted in rank.

CONGRATULATIONS also to LINDA ALLAN, ELIZABETH COSSEY, SALLY ANN KOENIG, SHIU-YUE MAK, JANICE MASANNAT, RILEY HANDY and PAT HODGES who were granted tenure.

During April and early May, EVELYN THURMAN has been especially active. On April 15, during National Library Week, she spoke to classes at Rich Pond School on Laura Ingalls Wilder. The next day she spoke here to teachers from Argentina and on the 25th, she spoke at the Mid-Cumberland District Library meeting. On May 1, three groups of student assistants for elementary schools visited here and Evelyn conducted storytelling sessions.

A number of people attended KLA, both Academic and Special libraries sections. Hope everybody had a good time!

Best wishes to RICK VOYLES for a speedy recovery.

New travel regulations are now in effect. Please get in touch with DEBBY SMITH for further information.

A.T. STEPHENS recently read some of his own verses at a poetry reading in Greenwood Mall.

DR. WASSOM recently spoke at a White House Conference follow-up session in the Bowling Green region. He will speak at sessions in Somerset on May 22 and in Owensboro on May 28.

DIANE RUTLEDGE has been granted a Faculty Research Grant for "A Directory of WKU Faculty Interest and Expertise."

We all want to wish BETTY BRIGHTUP the best in the future. Betty was a mainstay in Library Services for many years and her presence will be missed.

CONGRATULATIONS to the Bowling Team - They are the 1979-80 champions of Division B in the Women's City Handicap League. We wish them continued success as they begin their summer league!

The Department of Library Automation and Technical Services has been granted Unit Developmental Funding to attend the AACR II workshops to be held at the University of Kentucky. Faculty participating in these workshops are LINDA ALLAN, PAUL RILEY, NADA DURHAM, SARA SCOTT, CONNIE FOSTER, SHIU-YUE MAK and REG LASWELL.

BOYD CHILDRESS will be leaving May 16 to start work on his Faculty Research Grant - "Southern University Libraries 1860-1880". Some of the universities he will visit are the University of Alabama, University of Mississippi, Louisiana State University, University of Tennessee, University of South Carolina and the University of Georgia. We wish him success on his research and hope he has an enjoyable summer!

"Reading, like the sex act, is done privately, and often, in bed."

The workshop on library services to the hearing- impaired is designed to introduce librarians to the communication barriers preventing members of the deaf community from making full use of available library services. During the workshop, participants will learn a simple means of communicating with deaf people. They will receive practical approaches for identifying and reaching the deaf population of their communities and suggestions for preparing a service plan for their deaf residents.

Recommended lists of appropriate resources and library materials will be distributed.
